Activities

Shared approval of the Rent Program annual report with posts on the Housing Authority's social media accounts. Program staff continues to process Rent Registry submissions, including late registration, fee exemption requests, and reports of new ownership.

Published updated versions of Pocket Guides for Landlords and Tenants. Available at www.alamedarentprogram.org/resources, these booklets provide an easy reference guide to the Rent Ordinance, tenant rights, and available resources.

Housing Authority offices are now open to the public from 8:30-11:30 a.m.; contact the Rent Program to schedule an appointment with staff.

Rent Increase Submissions & Petitions

Multi-family units built prior to February 1, 1995, are subject to a cap on the annual amount of a rent increase, known as the Annual General Adjustment (AGA). Landlords may petition for an upward adjustment in the rent, and tenants may petition for a downward adjustment. Petitions are heard by hearing officers who issue binding decisions.

In addition, tenants and landlords may request that program staff conduct a review of a) the calculation of the maximum allowable rent allowed by the AGA, b) the base rent and/or housing services included with the base rent that the landlord reported when registering the rental unit, or c) previous or pending rent increase notices to determine if they complied with all rent ordinances and regulations. Staff will work with the landlord to correct any registration errors. If the review shows the tenant has been paying more than the maximum allowed by the AGA, staff will direct the landlord to reset the rent and refund the overpayment. If the tenant received an invalid notice that is not yet effective, staff will direct the landlord to rescind the notice. Annually, the Rent Program sends letters to the landlord and tenant informing them of the maximum allowable rent and providing a deadline by which to file a request for review.

When a landlord issues a rent increase of more than 10 percent (typically for those units not subject to the AGA), the notice must be filed with the Rent Program. If the tenant chooses to vacate within 90 days, the tenant is entitled to a relocation payment.

(Note: Landlords currently are not permitted to increase the rent for units subject to the AGA due to an urgency ordinance passed by the City Council in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.)

Termination of Tenancy Submissions

Rent Ordinance 3250 prevents landlords from terminating a tenancy except for certain allowable grounds and requires a relocation payment in cases where the termination is not the fault of the tenant. Terminations based on these "no fault" grounds must be filed with the Rent Program. There are no filing requirements for terminations based on "for cause" grounds.

Buyout Agreement Submissions

A buyout agreement is a written agreement between a landlord and a tenant, by which a tenant agrees to vacate, usually in return for money. Rent Ordinance 3250 affords protection to tenants who are offered buyout agreements. Buyout agreements must be filed with the Rent Program. Staff review submissions to ensure that tenants have been advised of their rights. An agreement that does not satisfy all requirements of the Rent Ordinance is not effective, and the tenant may rescind the deficient agreement at any time.

Monitoring of Unit Restrictions

Certain restrictions are imposed on rental units after a tenancy is terminated based on grounds for which the tenant is not at fault. These restrictions apply regardless of a change in ownership. On an annual basis, program staff initiates monitoring of the unit to verify compliance with the restrictions while they remain in effect. These annual monitoring cases remain "ongoing" until staff receives sufficient documentation from the property owner.

Capital Improvement Plans

To encourage landlords to improve the quality of the City's rental housing stock, Resolution 15138 allows landlords to recover from tenants the cost of certain substantial improvements, amortized over time. In addition, landlords are required to file a Capital Improvement Plan whenever a tenant must be temporarily relocated or a tenancy terminated because of the work associated with capital improvements; however, landlords are currently prohibited from doing so by an urgency ordinance passed by the City Council in response to the COVID-19 pandemic.

In November 2021, a previously submitted Capital Improvement Plan received final approval. The rent increase may not be implemented while the moratorium on rent increases remains in effect. No new applications were received.

Rent Registry

Open registration using the online Rent Registry has concluded. To date, 85% of properties have completed registration, representing 90% of rental units in Alameda. Staff continues to work with landlords to update information in the registry and process submissions.

Other Appeals

A landlord or tenant may appeal a determination by the Rent Program Administrator concerning other matters under the Rent Ordinance, such as whether the ordinance applies to a particular dwelling unit or whether a tenant who has been displaced is entitled to relocation payments. Appeals are heard by hearing officers who issue binding decisions, subject to judicial review.

No appeals were submitted in November 2021.
