Contact us if you need translation services or reasonable accommodations due to a disability.

PURPOSE

A landlord may include this document with a notice to permanently terminate a tenancy for any of the following reasons set forth in Section 6-58.80, Alameda Municipal Code (AMC):

- Owner move-in
- Demolition
- Withdrawal from the rental market
- Capital improvement plan
- Compliance with a governmental order

This notice explains the Permanent Relocation Payment amount to which the tenant is entitled and the payment distribution process.

INSTRUCTIONS

Fill out and serve this notice on the tenant(s) at the same time and in the same manner as the notice of termination of tenancy. The landlord must file a copy of the termination of tenancy notice and Form RP-201 with the Rent Program within three calendar days. With the submission of the termination of tenancy notice, also submit a copy of this notice that has been served on the tenant.

Notwithstanding the serving of this document on the tenant, the notice of termination of tenancy must state the exact amount of the relocation payment to which the tenant is entitled. See Section 6-58.110(C), AMC, and the Relocation Payment Fee Schedule.
